They Seespe to Sea, and Are Pickes Up and Landed at San Prancisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, NOV. 9.—Three whiling barks, the licindeer, limiter and Charles W. Morgan, arrived in port Tucking vectoring from Fox Island. The September 8, in Othotsh seu, seventy miles southwest of Cupe Sixtukico, he picked up an open bout containing ten Silerlain refugees who had put to sea to except the Silerlain graards. The unen had been at sea ten days, and for water. They were in a pittable condition. September 35 the Morgan spoke the whaler, Cape Harn Figean, and transferred five of the Russlans to that vessel. The Pigeon is en route to San Francisco.

They had resolved to escape to see in an open Lout moored near the cump of the guards. The guards, however, kept the ears under lock, and the men were compelled, secretely, to hew oars the veck of preparation, each mile he would be supposed.
